The Patriarch of Chinese Buddhist Order of Sangha in Thailand

on the United nations Day of Vesak 2012

On the auspicious time, the 2600th Buddha Jayanti celebration of the Lord Buddha's enlightenment anniversary in 2012. May we praise the benevolence of the Buddha who himself enlightened rightfully with supreme knowledge, who is a great man more excellent than all human and god, the Dharma (sermon) he discoursed is like as a brighten lamp, he also taught the Maha Prajnaparamita i.e. the enlightenment wisdom of all Buddha to usefulness and happiness of human beings, he is our superb refuge and leads human beings to be free from sufferings endlessly.

And may we bless on the auspicious occasion of Queen Sirikit's 80th birthday anniversary and Crown Prince Vajiralongkorn's 60th birthday anniversary in 2012.

In this occasion, United Nations Organization set up Visakha Puja Day as the international important day of world, and the International Buddhist's Convention will be held due to Visakha Puja Day in 2012, therefore it is a significant opportunity for us as Buddhists to give benevolences to each another endlessly. May we hurry up to follow the Buddha's conduct and propagate the Buddha's sermon worldwide. May they immerse themselves to track the way of Buddha with stable belief and faith. May we create the new human world with happiness of Buddha's kindness without molestation and harm to each another, and to have the peacefulness under Dharma's shadow extensively covered to the world endlessly.

May I, as a leader of the Chinese Buddhist Order of Sangha in Thailand, make the great felicitation for convention holders and Buddhist's leaders who gather for this meeting. May the prosperity and flourish in Dharma of the enlightened Buddha and be apparent to all of you, to have you contained with vigorous Dharma's power in order to fulfill the duty of the Buddha to the people.
