

Dr. G.A. Somaratne is Assistant Professor of Centre of Buddhist Studies, The University of Hong Kong. He was Professor in Pali and Buddhist Studies, Head of the Department of Pali and Buddhist Studies, and Chairperson of the Arts Faculty Higher Degrees Committee, The University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka; Associate Professor in Religion, Miyazaki International College, Japan; Rector of Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy (SIBA); Co-Director of the Dhammachai Tipitaka Project (DTP), Thailand; Joint-Secretary of Sri Lanka Association of Buddhist Studies (SLABS). He received his BA in Buddhist Philosophy from The University of Kelaniya; MA in Religion and PhD in Buddhism from Northwestern University, USA. He was Senior Research Associate of Balliol College, The University of Oxford and Research Fellow of the Pali Text Society, Oxford, UK. He is the editor of The Saṃyuttanikāya Volume I (1998) of PTS; his research publications cover the areas of Early Buddhist doctrines, Applied Buddhism, and Pali textual criticism. In 2011, his service to Buddhasāsana was recognized with Buddhagunopakāra Award by the Parliamentary Committee on Religious Affairs of the Kingdom of Thailand.