The Great supreme Patriarch of Dhammayutt Sangha of Kingdom of Cambodia.

On the United Nations Day of Vesak Celebration

Bangkok, 12-14 May (B.E.2555) 2011

Yours Holiness,
 Most Venerable, Venerable,
 Excellencies,
 Ladies and Gentlemen,

First of all, please allow me to express my heartfelt thanks to the organisers and especially to the Royal Government of Thailand and Mahachulalongkornraja Vidyalya University for their kind invitation. It is a privilege and a pleasure for me to address to this prestigious assembly.

Buddhism was found in India by Prince Sidhata of Sakya Royal Family. The Prince achieved enlightenment at the age of 35 and passed away at the age of 80. Surprisingly, birth, enlightenment and death of the lord Buddha were on the 15th Luna-day of Visakha. We are convincing today in order to promote credibility and to extend our Buddhist era via physical donation and following teachings of the lord Buddha, and to express our gratitude to the lord Buddha as we are Buddhist followers.

I believe that this event represents a firm solidarity of Buddhists in the whole world for a sound cooperation aimed at seeking the Path to universal harmony and spiritual peace.

Enthusiastically, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to and pay my profound gratitude to the organizers for organizing this great event. I am convinced that under your management and leadership, the Vesak Celebrations will foster unity among Buddhist leaders and enhance solidarity and brotherhood among Buddhists in order to promote understanding, tolerance, peace and harmony among human beings.

MAY BUDDHISM BRING ABOUT DEVELOPMENT, PEACE AND HARMONY ON THE EARTH.

Thank you very much for your attention

H.H. Bour Kry
